SWEP'S FIRST 2016 EVENT IS HERE!

Hello Friends!

Registration is opening for SWEP's first professional development event of the year.

Power Pose Workshop

This interactive session will help you understand the power of body language. Learn how our body language impacts how others see us and how we perceive ourselves. Join us and discover how body language can increase our confidence and influencing skills, resulting in a more successful career.

Our Guest Speaker will be Paula Parnagian, Manager, Diversity & Inclusion at Eversource. Paula has been recognized by U.S. State Department as one of top 100 thought leaders in Diversity and Inclusion. Paula has lived, traveled, and worked extensively with organizations throughout the world. A thought leader in the field of workplace effectiveness and diversity and inclusion, she writes and is quoted frequently in the press on these topics. She is an adjunct instructor for Cornell University and was an expert for the Boston Globe's Ask the HR Expert online column. Paula develops and leads Eversource's Diversity & Inclusion (D&I) strategy, contributing as a change agent and cultural architect across the enterprise. She partners with business leaders to develop and implement Eversource's D&I strategic plan and leads D&I organizational initiatives to build a performance culture.
